PLEASE NOTE, INDIVIDUALS WILL NOT BE ALLOWED ON THE WATER WITHOUT SIGNING THE DISCLAIMER FORM AND DISPLAYING THEIR WRISTBAND.

Practice Sessions 12 Noon - 1.45 pm on the day

You are advised to arrive early for the practice sessions.

Race time: All team members must be registered before the 2pm race briefing.

After the briefing, racing starts, please listen to tannoy messages for your team name before approaching the pontoon and donning lifejackets. We have coracles with team colours to match the bibs. Please check the race card to find out your team colour.

Fancy Dress:

We will be awarding a prize for the best fancy dress so go wild and see what your team can put together. Obviously, you will need to be able to paddle a coracle and wear a lifejacket in it!

Safety:

- Safety boats will be on site to deal with any medical emergencies. We will also have fully qualified lifeguards and will provide life jackets for all participants.
- Participants must wear closed toe shoes.
- Please take extra care when near the river and do not enter the pontoon without a lifejacket.
- Please be considerate of people walking on the towpath.
- All team members must be able to swim at least 200 metres fully clothed.
- Please ensure you wash your hands after being on the water.

Fundraising:

- A team fundraising page will be set up for you on registration on the Enthuse platform.
- If you have any questions with regards to fundraising or your Enthuse fundraising page, please contact Kate McGrory, Macmillan Relationship Fundraising Manager on KMcGrory@macmillan.org.uk
- Please could you and your team share the link with family and friends. We do encourage teams to raise as much as they can for Macmillan Cancer support and the highest fundraiser will be presented with the Richard Bayliss cup.
- However, if you have further funds to give us after the day then please send to; Coracle, Cliffe House, Ruyton-XI-Towns, Shrewsbury, SY4 1LF, by the 31st October 2027.

Advertising:

On the day feel free to bring a small teardrop banner to create a team base on the riverside. We will not accept any other banners or posters at the Pengwern Boat House.

We look forward to seeing you, your family and friends on Friday 10th September for another fun afternoon, raising much needed funds for Macmillan Cancer Support.

Good luck with your fundraising and the race itself! Don't forget there will be refreshments, Bacon baps and burgers by Maynards, tea and coffee and a bar available at the Boat Club. Why not bring your children after school to join in the fun.

After party: There will be evening entertainments, with prize giving at the Boathouse Pub.
